

The Peace and Justice Action League of Spokane
presents:

Peace and Economic Justice Action Conference

Workshop Topics Include:

- Immigration
- Online Organizing
- Police Accountability and Criminal Justice
- Progressive Tax Reform in WA
- Nonviolence and Social Change
- Palestine
- War and Peace
- Veteran Support
- Campaign Financing
- Rural Organizing
- Community Organizing

Keynote Speaker:
Marcy Westerling, Rural
Organizing Project, Oregon

Westerling has been a leader in advancing democratic, progressive values in the rural communities of the Northwest for over two decades. ROP, founded in 1992, has created an organizational structure that channels action and gives voice to progressive rural citizens, establishing "human dignity groups" in over 50 rural communities and small towns in Oregon.

8:00-5:30 Saturday, March 13, 2010, in Spokane, WA
Messiah Lutheran Church, 4202 North Belt Street

"Hands on Reception" Friday, March 12, at Messiah Lutheran, 6-8 pm:

Join in an interactive discussion circle to engage, evaluate and shape a real model for our organizing in our region. Marcy Westerling will facilitate a "Living Room Conversation," a tried and true method for talking about the times we live in and engaging our peers in problem-solving for a more inclusive, fair community.

Refreshments provided. Conference participants and the general public are welcome!

Conference Registration: includes plenary, three workshops, breakfast, and lunch
$35 general, $15 for students, $20 for PJALS members

PJALS is dedicated to building the foundations of a just and nonviolent world through community organizing and advocacy for peace, economic justice, and human rights. Contact us at 509-838-7870 email pjals@pjals.net or visit www.pjals.net

Join us as we:

- Bring together people and groups from across the Inland Northwest who support inclusive democracy, peace, economic justice, and human rights,
- Identify and discuss ways we can work together across our region and in our communities to increase our impact, and
- Build the skills of participants so that we can reach out and involve others to take action.

Preliminary List of Workshops:

Community Dialogs on Immigration, Online Organizing on a Shoestring, War Front to Home Front: Helping Veterans Heal, Safety and Justice: Police Accountability and Criminal Justice, Investing in Washington's Future: progressive tax reform, Nonviolence and Social Change, Palestine 101, Culture and Song in Social Change, War and Peace: the US, Iraq, Afghanistan and what's next, Corporate Rule, Campaign Financing, and Democracy, Rural Organizing for Inclusive Democracy, Community Organizing: From Conversation to Action

Registration:

Name: _____ General ___ Student ___ Member ___

Organization: _____

Address: _____ Zip: _____

Home Phone: _____ Cell Phone: _____

Email address: _____

Meal Preference: Vegetarian Non-Vegetarian

Please submit registration form with payment to PJALS, 35 W. Main Ave, Ste 120M, Spokane, WA 99201
Registration inquiries, please contact Vickie Woodley at vwoodley@pjals.net or 509-838-7870.